A Membership That Matters
Make a Difference with GIA

Because all investments are aging investments.

Grantmakers In Aging (GIA) acts as a relevant and responsive network, resource, and champion, amplifying the voices of older people and issues of aging.

Your membership in GIA can help you have a bigger impact and be a better funder.

GIA members enjoy many benefits. Perhaps the most important is finding a warm, collegial environment for learning within an organization committed to sharing your successes and helping you make a difference.

As a GIA member, you’ll see how aging issues intersect with the entire spectrum of philanthropic priorities, from children and families to community development and social justice.

You’ll have access to unparalleled resources and contacts to enhance your work.

And you’ll make personal connections with other funders and leaders across sectors and disciplines, who share your commitment to building stronger, healthier communities for people of all ages.
Enjoy Essential BENEFITS

EXPERIENCE
The Power of Personal Connection

- Join Member Meet-Ups: Interact with leaders and innovators in an intimate setting
- Network at GIA-sponsored events
- Attend high-level trustee and executive meetings
- Share through our members-only online discussion forum

AMPLIFY
Your Message

- Let GIA promote news about your programs, grantees, staff, trustees, and thought leadership
- Reach a wide audience of funders, nonprofits, and policymakers through GIA’s social media, events, website, and emails
- Get noticed in Aging Matters, the only e-newsletter devoted to aging and philanthropy

DISCOVER
Resources Tailored to Funders

- Attend our Annual Conference for cutting-edge ideas and trends, and engage a unique all-funder audience as a presenter or participant
- Explore GIA’s series of original, expert-authored publications and the All Together Comprehensive Guide to Funding in Aging
- Keep learning with our philanthropy-focused webinar series, Conversations with GIA
- Participate in high-level summits

BUILD
Your Capacity

- New to aging or philanthropy? GIA is here to help.
- Grow through opportunities for leadership, mentoring, and professional development
- Explore grantmaking for a more equitable and age-friendly society
- Consult with the GIA team on strategic grantmaking and age-positive messaging

MAXIMIZE
Your Impact and Legacy

- Deepen your relationships in members-only Funders Collaboratives on Serious Illness and End-of-Life; Family Caregiving; Rural Health and Aging; and Housing Stability in Aging
- Find funding partners and collaborators to optimize your investments and build sustainability
- Pool and allocate resources more effectively when GIA serves as your fiscal agent
“Being a member of GIA significantly helped me grow in the art of grantmaking. The opportunity to network and connect with other funders has been priceless.”

“GIA has been fundamental to our development into a respected funder in aging.”

“GIA has been amazing. I’ve never been so warmly accepted into a circle of colleagues. I’ve been able to use their resources in presentations to my Board of Trustees, and I’ve learned so much from assisting in projects.”

Become a Member of GIA

Start taking advantage of all our member benefits. Join GIA today.

Find our membership application at www.GIAging.org/join.

Organizations that are eligible to join GIA include:
- Private Foundations
- Corporate Giving Programs
- Public Sector Funders
- Social Venture Capital Groups
- Individual Philanthropists

Affiliate Membership
GIA also offers Affiliate Membership to qualifying nonprofit organizations. Organizations must be national in the scope of their mission and services, committed to improving the experience of aging, and providing grants on a discretionary basis annually to multiple entities. Please note that organizations that qualify for full membership, including foundations, corporate giving programs, and individual philanthropists, are not eligible for Affiliate Membership.

Lindsay A. Goldman
Chief Executive Officer, GIA
Contact
lgoldman@GIAging.org
703.413.0413
Questions?
Please feel free to contact us with any questions and to learn more about why and how to join GIA.

www.GIAging.org